State Records Center and Records Center Operations

The State Records Center (SRC) is located at 215 North Blount Street (across from the Governor's Mansion) in the state government complex in downtown Raleigh. In addition to containing offices for the Government Records Branch, it was designed and equipped specifically for the storage of inactive governmental records. The SRC operations staff are officially known as the State Agency Services Unit. The branch also maintains other off-site records storage facilities.

In accordance with the NC Administrative Code, entry and access to the SRC building is limited to persons on official business. All visitors are required to provide identification (i.e., state government photo ID badge or driver's license) for inclusion in the branch's Patron Registration database and must wear a "visitor" badge when in the building. Access by persons not on official business may be denied. Visitors must be escorted by branch staff when in the records storage areas or other areas beyond the administrative offices.

Depending on the creating agency's program Records Schedule, records are transferred to the SRC for storage in either paper, microfilm / microfiche, or occasionally in electronic formats. The SRC provides records storage and reference services to state agencies, boards, and commissions. In certain cases, records are stored for counties, municipalities, and state-supported colleges and universities. Records transferred for storage in the SRC remain in the legal, official custody of the creating agency until they are destroyed or transferred to the custody of the State Archives. Access to stored records is restricted to the creating agency's staff. Persons other than an agency's staff must contact the appropriate agency and receive written permission prior to using records in the SRC. The SRC will not accept for storage any unscheduled or unidentified records. Likewise, if the agency's program Records Schedule does not instruct the agency to transfer the records in question, the SRC will not accept the records, and no records covered by the General Schedule will be accepted for transfer and storage.

Any records transferred to the SRC must be in approved storage boxes and clearly identified with specific, preprinted labels as provided by the SRC. The SRC must also have a completed, signed Records Transfer Request Form for each transfer. There is a nominal charge for boxes and supplies (box tape and labels), and most xerographic copies. Currently there is no charge for all other agency services (storage; reference; file retrieval, re-filing, and inter-filing; and transportation of records transfers and supplies within Raleigh city limits).

Due to budgetary and staff limitations, the SRC does not deliver supplies or pick up records outside the Raleigh city limits. Out-of-town agencies must arrange to pick up their boxing supplies and make arrangements to deliver their records transfers. The SRC is not able to mail flattened boxes, but labels and forms can be sent by mail. For agencies within the Raleigh city limits, the SRC does not mail files being retrieved and checked out to the agency. All in-town agencies' staff must pick up the requested files in person.

How to Transfer Records

The SRC uses a computerized database system which blends information from each agency's program Records Schedule (SCHS) with tracking information on previously transferred records (FAIDS). Certain portions of this blended information are extracted by the computer and used in printing each specific, records series-related Records Transfer Request Form (RC-2), as well as printing the appropriate number of box labels.

Records covered by the General Schedule for State Agency Records (as published on our website) will not be accepted for transfer and storage in the SRC.

Transferring Records Checklist

1. Check your program Records Schedule to verify the records series' Item Number and Disposition Instructions. If the series is to be transferred, check to see if the retention period has been met. Note if there are any steps you need to take care of in-agency (such as removing portions of some files, or preparing the records for microfilming) before contacting the SRC to initiate a transfer request. Determine how many cubic feet (how many boxes) of records you need to transfer.
2. Once you have this information on hand, call the SRC at: (919) 807-7370.
3. Provide your name, agency, building / room number, street address, and phone number.
4. Provide the Item Number (from the Records Schedule) for the records to be transferred. Tell us how many boxes, box tape and labels you need to prepare the records for transfer.
 NOTE: There is a nominal charge for boxes, tape, and labels. The SRC staff will fill out an Order Form, which you (or someone else from your office) will sign when you receive the supplies. The SRC staff may elect to mail or fax this order to you for signing and returning.
5. When we receive the completed Order Form, we will prepare a Records Transfer Request Form (RC-2) and box labels for you. You may pick up supplies any time the Records Center is open. If you are only ordering labels, we are able to mail them to you.
6. When your boxes are packed, labeled and numbered, [see page A6 for detailed instructions] and when the boxes are completely ready for transfer, complete Items 7, 12, 13, and 14 on the Records Transfer Request Form. Make a copy for your files, and send the original to the SRC. If you fax the form back to the SRC, keep the original with the boxes of records awaiting transfer. NOTE: Only records packed in Records Center boxes will be accepted for storage in the SRC. Boxes which do not comply with instructions shall be returned to the agency or organization for correction (or not picked up).
7. The SRC staff will contact in-town agencies prior to arriving to pick up the records transfer. Out-of-town agencies should make arrangements to bring their records to the SRC. Please DO NOT send records through the State Courier Service—they have no way of tracking your shipment if it gets lost. If you must use the Courier Service, we ask that you notify us in advance of your intentions, so we can be on the lookout for the shipment.
8. All boxes which are delivered to the SRC by agencies must be properly prepared, have completed paperwork, and be loaded for delivery in numerical box order (Box 1, Box 2, Box 3, etc.) so as to off-load in reverse box order.
9. Use of non-approved supplies is not allowed and improperly prepared and shipped boxes will not be accepted for storage.

This checklist is based on NC Administrative Code, Title 7, Chapter 4, Subchapter M, Section .0503 (amended April 1, 2001). For a full citation of this section, see pages A1-A3 in the Appendix.

For a copy of "How to Box Records for Transfer to the State Records Center" Form (RC-4), see page A6 in the Appendix; the form is also available for download from the branch's web site.

Box Charges / Supply Fees

The following fee schedule for boxes and supplies will apply to state agencies, boards, commissions, universities, and community colleges:

- Letter box (1 cubic foot, 12" x 15" x 10 ½") -- $ 1.00 each
- Preprinted box labels (one per box is required) -- $.02 each
- Box tape (one strip per box is required) -- $.10 each

Sales tax on orders will only be charged to those offices without a Department of Revenue sales tax exemption (a copy of the agency's exemption letter must be on file with the Archives and Records Section).

Invoices will be sent weekly to the central purchasing office of the department of which the requesters' offices are a part. If the invoice should not be sent to the central budget office, please let us know.

Orders totaling less than $1.00 will not be invoiced.

Reference and Retrieval Services

Reference service on records stored for the creating agency in the State Records Center (or one of the off-site storage facilities) may be obtained by one of the following methods:

Routine requests

Complete a Records Retrieval Form (RC-14) and send it to the State Records Center by:

- Interoffice Mail
- U.S. Postal Service                      4615 Mail Service Center, Raleigh, NC 27699-4615
- State Courier                              Courier Service No. 51-81-20
- Fax    (919) 715-3627
- E-mail (general address)              records@ncdcr.gov
- Hand delivery

Out-of-town agencies: the requests will be filled and returned by either Mail Service Center / Interoffice or U.S. Postal Service to the requesting agency (must be the agency which created the records). In certain instances, an out-of-town agency may prefer using State Courier Service for retrieved records, but must be aware there is no systematic tracking of items sent via courier. If the agency's staff intends to visit the SRC office to view the records in person, please note that on the form.

In-town agencies (within the Raleigh city limits): the requested files will be pulled and the agencies' staff will be called and informed that the requested files are ready for personal pick-up. No records will be given out to anyone other than the requestor, unless the requestor has identified a designee. All visitors coming to pick up records must register with the receptionist in the lobby and show a valid state agency ID badge. For more information, see page A7 in the Appendix: Memorandum, October 13, 2003, Reference Checkouts from State Records Center (SRC).

Priority or Emergency requests

Complete a Records Retrieval Form (RC-14) and bring it in person to the SRC office at 215 North Blount Street (across from the Governor's Mansion). SRC staff will fill the request as soon as possible.

Records research visits (Non-Emergency requests)

Visitors wishing to use records stored in the State Records Center are urged to call in advance, so the records can be pulled and ready for use upon the researcher's arrival. If the researcher is not an employee of the agency which created the records needed, the researcher must receive written permission from the agency allowing the use of the files. This written permission must include all information needed to retrieve the materials, and the agency should also complete a Records Retrieval Form (RC-14) for the records series in question. Note: Visitors must bring their permission letter and the RC-14 form with them when conducting research at the SRC. All research requests without written permission from the creating agency will be referred back to the agency.

The Records Retrieval Form (RC-14) for service and retrieval of stored records must include:

- the requester's name, full agency information, and telephone number
- the requester's building and room number and / or address
- indicate if the records or information should be mailed, picked-up, or a call placed to the requester concerning the material
- the Item number(s) from the agency's program Records Schedule
- specific details about the records or files being requested
- the dates of the records requested

The Records Retrieval Form (RC-14) is on page A8 in the Appendix, and is available for download from the branch's web site.

Authorized Destruction of Records    Destruction Charges

Authorized Destruction of Records

An agency may destroy records only on the basis of their approved program Records Schedule (developed specifically for that agency), the General Schedule for State Agency Records, and/or the Standard Disposition Instructions for North Carolina Accounting System (NCAS) Reports. The consistent and routine implementation of the disposition instructions listed in these schedules provides the proper and legal foundation for the disposition of public records through destruction (or transfer to the SRC).

Authority for these disposition instructions is contained in Chapters 121 and 132 of the General Statutes of North Carolina. Compliance with the disposition instructions listed in these retention schedules helps ensure conformity with the public records laws, and allows the proper destruction of records whose value has ended (as well as the retention of records with continuing value). Procedures to be followed in properly disposing of records are explained in the NC Administrative Code, Title 7, Chapter 4, Subchapter M, Section .0510 (May 16, 1989):

.0510 DEFINITION OF DESTRUCTION

When used in an approved records retention and disposition schedule, the provision that records are to be destroyed means that the records are to be:

1. burned;
2. shredded or torn up so as to destroy the record content of the documents or materials concerned;
3. placed in acid vats so as to reduce the paper to pulp and to terminate the existence of the documents or materials concerned;
4. buried under such conditions that the record nature of the documents or materials will be terminated; or
5. sold as waste paper, provided that the purchaser agrees in writing that the documents or materials concerned will not be resold as documents or records.

Confidential records should be destroyed in a secure manner so that the information contained in them cannot be used.

No unscheduled records in an agency's custody should be destroyed until a Request and Approval of Unscheduled Records Form (RC-5) is filled out by the agency and approved by staff of the Government Records Branch. Records stored in the SRC remain in the legal custody of the creating agency and will not be destroyed until that creating agency concurs with the destruction by signing a Notice of Destruction of Records Form (RC-23X). This form is computer generated by the SRC and sent to agencies on a quarterly basis as specific records become eligible for destruction (based on approved program Records Schedule instructions).

Destruction Charges

The terms of the April 2010 contract specify that the vendor will not charge for destruction.

Other Branch or Section Services

Records Scheduling

Records management services are extended to all agencies and departments in state government, counties, municipalities, the community college system, and state colleges and universities. Working with the agency's Chief Records Officer, a Records Management Analyst is assigned to each agency or department to give guidance to agencies on the full range of records management issues and services. Please Note: It is the responsibility of each state agency to keep its program Records Retention and Disposition Schedule up to date and to notify the Government Records Branch of any changes affecting its schedule.

Records Management Workshops

Training is available to all state employees interested in learning more about records management and subject filing systems. All presentations are given by Records Management Analysts who provide detailed instructions regarding the procedures involved in creating or updating an office's retention schedule. Most workshops are held at the State Records Center on first and third Wednesdays, September through May. For more details, call (919) 807-7350.

The basic workshop lays the groundwork for working with public records in both paper and electronic formats:

- Introduction to Managing Public Records (2½ hours). Answers questions like: "What is records management?" and "What is a records retention and disposition schedule?" Dispels notions such as, "We don't have public records." Provides tools to help when "My boss wants these records out of the hallway." This presentation covers public access to electronic files; managing, storing, and retrieving electronic records and helping assure their accuracy and reliability; the security of electronic files; and system backups. This workshop will also provide a basic introduction to the Public Records Law in North Carolina and describe how a schedule is developed. Includes a discussion and tour of the State Records Center's services and features.

The branch also offers three workshops which discuss more specific issues:

- Managing Electronic Records: Recognizing Perils and Avoiding Pitfalls (1½ hours). More and more, government employees use computers as they conduct their daily business. While computers are invaluable tools that store large amounts of data that can be easily searched, depending solely upon electronic records can be dangerous. In this workshop state employees will learn some of the problems associated with electronic records and will receive advice on how to protect those records.
- The Digital Divide Also Multiplies: Managing E-mail (1½ hours). Increasingly, government employees utilize e-mail to conduct government business. People use e-mail to communicate ideas and to obtain information. While it can increase office productivity, e-mail can also be a burden as the amount of e-mail multiplies. This workshop offers tips and tricks to help state employees identify and manage e-mail records and explains why electronic mail is a public record.
- From Filing Cabinet to Desktop PC: Organizing Your Paper and Electronic Files (1½ hours). For the vast majority of offices, maintaining records is still a daily factor in office work. This workshop provides concrete examples of how to organize and maintain active paper and electronic files in an efficient, easy-to-use system, and is designed for state employees who desire something better than a strictly alphabetical filing system, or who are challenged with organizing e-mail or electronic documents.

Other Branch or Section Services

Arrangement and Description of Archival Records

The primary purpose of the archivists in the State Agency Services Unit of the Government Records Branch is to identify, appraise, arrange, describe, and make accessible the permanently valuable noncurrent records of state government. They ensure that all state agency records brought into the custody of the State Archives are properly preserved, protected, identified, and appraised for their legal and historical value. The permanently valuable records are arranged and described according to archival and departmental standards, practices, and procedures; and more detailed finding aids are prepared to enable the records to be better utilized for research by staff, government employees, and the general public (usually in the State Archives' Search Room).

Archivists make their appraisal decisions based upon broad knowledge of the state's history, public records laws, Records Schedules, and internal unit guidelines. Records received by the State Archives are usually those no longer needed administratively by state and local government units, but which retain legal and evidentiary value or have content of interest to genealogists and historians. Disposal of non-permanently valuable records is equally important in the appraisal process, greatly reducing the volume of records retained and enhancing the overall accessibility of records.

Records are arranged into series established by the appropriate agency's Records Schedule and merged with any previously transferred material already received from the respective state agency. During the process of arrangement, records are removed from harmful environments (e.g. staples, paper clips, rubber bands, pins, acidic folders and shucks) and placed in acid-free folders and boxes. Documents requiring conservation are also identified and arrangements are made for their treatment.

Once records have been re-folded, they are properly labeled to ensure greater ease in accessibility by staff and researchers. Records description involves the preparation of finding aids to provide better access to records series by both Archives staff and the general public. This process also includes the creation and updating of data in automated finding aids, such as the Manuscripts and Archives Reference System (MARS). Through the creation of paper and electronic finding aids, the Records Description Unit is able to maintain intellectual control over governmental records transferred to the State Archives' custody.

State Agency Services Unit archivists may also provide reference service for both governmental agencies and the general public to the unprocessed state agency records (including Governor's Office records) in State Archives' storage.

Microfilming Services

The Imaging Unit of the Collections Management Branch provides services to local and state government including establishing standards for micrographics; providing preservation and security reformatting of public records; microfilm processing, duplicating and quality control testing; and consulting with local and state governments regarding their micrographics records systems. Records are filmed for state government agencies and boards, occupational licensing boards, and independent regulatory commissions. Records must be approved for microfilming in the agency's program Records Schedule. All microfilm produced by the Collections Management Branch meets archival, state, and national standards. All microfilm produced is inspected by quality control technicians and certified for accuracy by microfilm camera operators. Copies of microfilm of certain types of records are available for use by the general public in the State Archives' Search Room.

See page A11 in the Appendix for more information on preparing documents for microfilming.

Other Branch or Section Services

State Archives

Agency records intended to be preserved permanently are often stored in the physical custody of the Government Records Branch for a period of time specified on the records retention and disposition schedule. During that period, the records remain in the legal custody of the creating agency. These records are coded in the SRC's database as "pending transfer." Once the transfer is completed, the creating agency will still have access to the records, through the normal research protocols of the State Archives. The public will have access without intervention by, or notice to, the creating agency, except as restricted by law.

If the creating agency has an unusual need for the records, it may discuss the problem with the archivist in charge of State Agency Services.

The State Archives Search Room is located in Room 201 of the Archives and History / State Library Building, 109 East Jones Street. The mailing address is 4614 Mail Service Center, Raleigh, NC 27699-4614, and the phone number is (919) 807-7310.

For more information on the State Archives Search Room, hours of operation, and finding aids, see the web site <http://www.archives.ncdcr.gov/>

HOW TO BOX RECORDS FOR TRANSFER TO THE STATE RECORDS CENTER

Form RC-4 (Rev. 8/2007)

Follow records retention schedule disposition instructions.

1. Unfold and assemble box, turning short flaps in first then long flaps, positioning so trademark will be on bottom of box, and for letter boxes, the handhold cutout will be nearer the top of box. Tape bottom of box with 3-inch wide paper tape purchased from the State Records Center. The end with the seam will be the back of the box.
2. Place records in boxes in the upright position and in the same order as they were arranged in your office's file drawers. Leave the records in their file folders, but do not pack hanging file folders. If the material previously stored in hanging files was not also stored in regular file folders, place the folder contents in regular files before packing into the boxes. Transcribe folder titles onto any unlabeled folders. Pack neatly but allow about four inches of free play in the back of the box (for possible re-file, inter-file, or reference activity).
3. The standard State Records Center box is sized to accommodate either letter or legal files. Stand letter-size folders the 12-inch way front to rear of the box. Stand legal size folders the 15-inch way from left to right side of box.
4. Do not pack records from two different Records Schedule item numbers in the same box, not even if they happen to have the same disposition instructions. Keep your records series separate from one another.
5. Box labels are pre-printed using information from the SRC's database and your office's Records Schedule. A generic box label is shown below. Assign individual box numbers as packed, enter number of total boxes at end of packing. Fill in information below the dotted line on the label by typewriter, ballpoint pen, or fine-point permanent marker (such as Sharpie by Sanford). DO NOT USE THE EXPRESSO BRAND MARKING PENS BY SANFORD. THEY FADE QUICKLY WHEN EXPOSED TO LIGHT, WHICH LEADS TO AN UNREADABLE LABEL.

BOX STARTS WITH (Enter No. / Letter of Beginning File in Box)
BOX ENDS WITH (Enter No. / Letter of Ending File in Box)
BOX NO. _____ OF _____ TOTAL BOXES IN SERIES

6. Adhere the label on the center front (12-inch/short side) of letter boxes—just under the handhold cutout. Adhere the label on the center front of all other sizes of boxes. Identify correct box sequence by numbering all boxes consecutively within each Records Schedule Item/Series. Write the beginning and ending box count on the label. EXAMPLE: BOX NO. 1 OF 50 TOTAL BOXES IN SERIES.
7. Close boxes by tucking top flaps alternately over and under each other. DO NOT TAPE TOP OF BOX. Complete the Transfer Request Form (RC-2), and contact the SRC to arrange for transfer of boxes.
8. All boxes which are delivered to the SRC by agencies must be properly prepared, have completed paperwork, and be loaded for delivery in numerical box order (Box 1, Box 2, Box 3, etc.) so as to off-load in reverse box order.
9. Use of non-approved supplies is not allowed and improperly prepared and shipped boxes will not be accepted for storage.

Preparing Documents For Microfilming

If an agency's Records Schedule instructs that minutes, photocopies of minutes, or other kinds of governmental records are to be microfilmed, these are the basic steps for preparing those documents for microfilming. All questions concerning microfilming should be addressed to the following office: Imaging Unit, Collections Management Branch, Archives and Records Section, Division of Historical Resources, 4616 Mail Service Center, Raleigh, NC 27699-4616. Phone: (919) 807-7334. fax: (919) 715-7274. (Physical location of Imaging Unit: Basement, Archives and History / State Library Building)

Minutes

Preparation of original Minute Books (or photocopies) for microfilming is the responsibility of the board or commission staff and must be completed before the records are removed from the office. All original documents must be placed in the order in which they are to be filmed. All records will be filmed in the exact order received. The Imaging Unit will film only completed volumes; partially filled books will not be filmed.

- All staples, post-it notes, and paper clips must be removed and all documents taped together must be separated. This includes attachments to the minutes.
- Unfold all documents. Smooth out corner folds. Do not fold copies or submit double-sided copies.
- All photocopies sent in for microfilming should be on the same size paper.
- If copies of minutes are torn, repair copies of minutes with transparent tape. Do not use tape on original records.
- All various-sized papers should be arranged so that the bottom edge of each page will be evenly aligned.
- Minutes must be signed in all designated areas.
- Complete a Verification of Volume Preparation Form (available from the Imaging Unit) for each shipment prepared for filming. Note the beginning and end of volumes.
- Documents should be packaged in such a way to prevent pages from being damaged during shipment.

Any records not meeting these requirements will be returned. The Imaging Unit cannot provide microfilming services in a timely manner if there are delays as a result of improper preparation.

If board / commission staff are personally delivering minutes to the Imaging Unit, they must make an appointment for delivery. To make an appointment to deliver materials for filming, contact: Tammy James, (919) 807-7334. If the board / commission staff wish the Imaging Unit to acknowledge mail receipt of photocopies of minutes, please include a cover letter and a self-addressed stamped envelope in the same package as the minutes. The cover letter should include the following essential information: Title of Minutes, Volume Number, Page Numbers, and Inclusive Dates. If the original volumes are returned to the board, please do not alter or rearrange any books after they have been filmed. Any modification of the original minute books after microfilming will invalidate the filmed copy.

Governmental Records (other than Minutes)

Preparation of records for microfilming is the responsibility of the creating agency and must be completed before the records are removed from the agency. All records must be placed in the order that they are to be filmed (alphabetical, numerical, chronological, etc.). Records will be filmed in the exact order received. All staples and paper clips must be removed and all documents taped together must be separated. Unfold all documents. Smooth out corner folds. Place all records in the appropriate folder and arrange records within each folder in the exact order for microfilming. Preliminary targets (describes the material being filmed) should be prepared by the creating agency. All variously-sized documents should be arranged so that the bottom edge of each page will be evenly aligned. Place folders in boxes. DO NOT pack too tightly. Label each box with pre-printed labels (boxes and labels are procured from the SRC). Any records not meeting these requirements will be returned promptly.
